

REFLECTION: Difficult Concepts

---

Think about a concept or skill that you teach your students, which the majority of students struggle to grasp.

Write down the types of learners your teaching strategy was suitable for.

Write down the kind of intelligences your students would require to learn best from the approach you used?

Consider what you could do to teach this concept or skill in different ways

What type of learner/intelligence are you targetting now?